

GHIN Online Score Posting Instructions for LGA Members

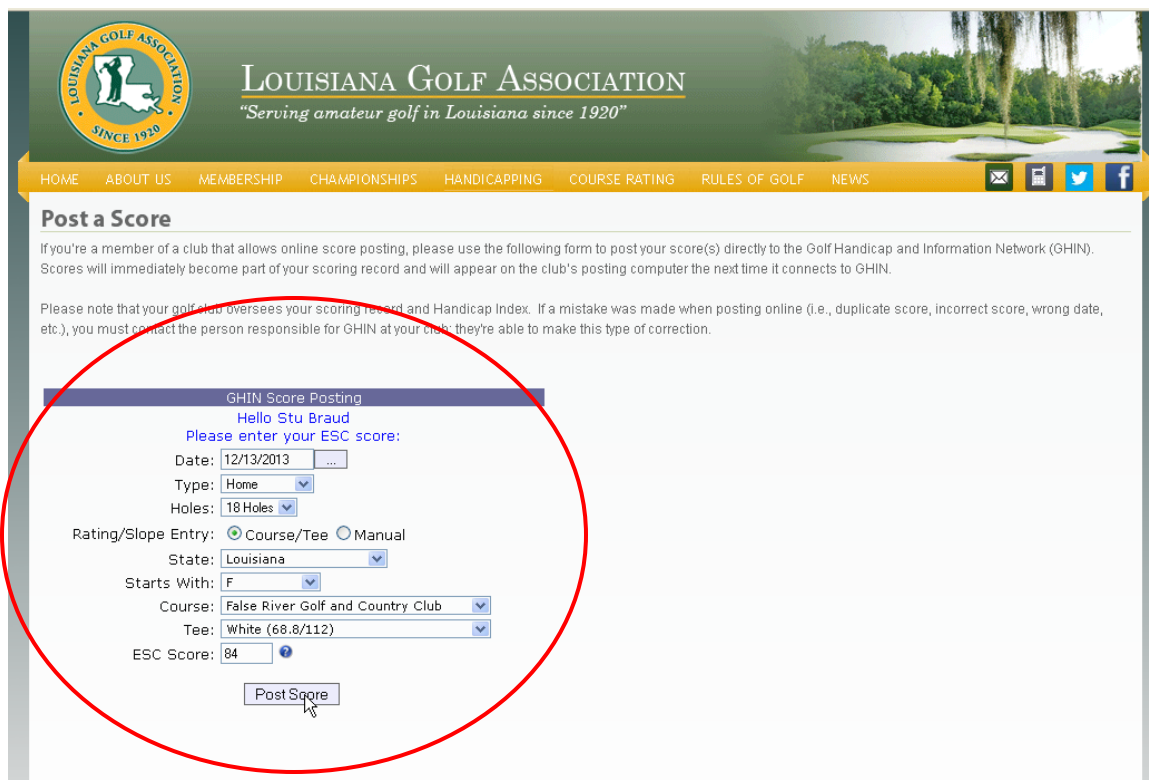

1. Go to www.LGAgolf.org and click 'Post Score' at the 'My LGA' section of our homepage.

2. Enter your GHIN number, last name, and click Continue
 Contact your home club or LGA staff if you need your GHIN number*

The screenshot shows the "Post a Score" form on the Louisiana Golf Association website. The form is titled "Post a Score" and includes the following text: "If you're a member of a club that allows online score posting, please use the following form to post your score(s) directly to the Golf Handicap and Information Network (GHIN). Scores will immediately become part of your scoring record and will appear on the club's posting computer the next time it connects to GHIN." Below this text is a note: "Please note that your golf club oversees your scoring record and Handicap Index. If a mistake was made when posting online (i.e., duplicate score, incorrect score, wrong date, etc.), you must contact the person responsible for GHIN at your club; they're able to make this type of correction." The form contains the following fields: "Identify Golfer" (a header), "GHIN Number: 1532661" (a text input field), "Last Name: Braud" (a text input field), and a "Continue" button. The entire "Identify Golfer" section is circled in red.

3. Select Date played, Type (Home, Away, Tournament), number of Holes, Course/Tee played, and enter your ESC Score. Then click Post Score.
